

THE

With a sonorous cry, a girl was born.

There was a hint of complaint, the girl officially became a member of the family.

The mother looked fondly at her child, and the grandmother and husband had gone out.

LIFE

When she was 7 years old, a touch from a classmate made her feel uncomfortable, but she didn't make a sound.

When she was 12 years old, she was at a loss for the excessive "jokes" of boys, but she didn't know what to do.

OF

When she was 18 years old, the weird looks from the teacher made her feel creepy. She just wore her favourite skirt.

When she was 23 years old, she was rejected for the fifth time by the interviewer, and her resume was constantly revised. "Your qualifications are good, but you may not be a good fit for our company."

When she was 30 years old, she got the job she liked, but she could only do the trivial work "requested" by her predecessors and work until dawn.

When she was 50 years old, she was experiencing climacteric and feared her change of the body, but her lovely family pacified her inner anxiety.

A GIRL

Everyone has infinite possibilities in the future.

Most people will see various scenery on their journey and grow up safely.

Some people are not so lucky to encounter the devil, but there is still a long way to go.

You can have a beautiful life.
